PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION - INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

Local Rule 83.1B, below, sets forth the requirements for admission pro hac vice.

83.1B. Permission to Practice in a Particular Case.

A non-resident attorney who is not an active member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia, but who is a member in good standing of the bar of any United States court or of the highest court of any State may apply in writing for permission to appear pro hac vice.

Applications for admission pro hac vice may be obtained from the clerk and will be filed electronically by designated local counsel. The applicant shall state under penalty of perjury the applicant's (1) residence address, (2) office address and telephone number, (3) the courts to which admitted to practice and the dates of admission, and (4) a statement that the applicant is in good standing and eligible to practice in all courts to which admitted. A non-resident attorney will not be permitted to appear until the applicant's application for admission pro hac vice has been signed by the district judge to whom the case is assigned or by the district judge's courtroom deputy, if so authorized by the district judge. (Emphasis supplied.)

An attorney applying to appear pro hac vice must designate a local member of the bar of this Court with whom the opposing counsel and the Court may readily communicate regarding the conduct of the case and upon whom papers shall be served. The address, telephone number, and written consent of the designated local counsel must be filed with the attorney's pro hac vice application. All attorneys signing as local counsel are subject to verification of enrollment and status of good standing with the State Bar of Georgia prior to application approval. The Court would also remind these attorneys of your duty to verify the bar admission status of any attorney you are sponsoring on a pro hac vice basis.

If the non-resident attorney fails to respond to any order of the Court for appearance or otherwise, the local attorney shall have the responsibility and full authority to act for and on behalf of the client in all proceedings in connection with the case, including hearings, pretrial conferences, and trial.
