ORDER

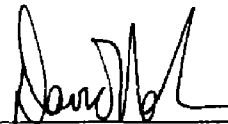

Title 28, U.S.C. § 636(c) authorizes magistrate judges, rather than district judges, to preside over civil cases if both sides consent. The United States Attorney consenting hereto, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that in all appeals to this Court from decisions denying Social Security benefits, the Defendant, i.e., the Commissioner of Social Security, who is represented by the United States Attorney, shall be deemed to have provided consent unless that consent is withdrawn as to a particular case at the time of filing the initial response to the complaint. The United States Attorney may withdraw the general consent to this Standing Order at any time by Notice to the Chief Judge, but such withdrawal will apply only to cases filed after the date of the withdrawal. Absent a withdrawal of consent, the Clerk will reassign a case to the Magistrate Judge before whom the case is pending upon receipt of the Plaintiff's Consent. This Order shall be effective as to all applicable cases filed after the date of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 30 day of January 2007.
