(2) Pretrial Matters on Reference from Judge.

(b) The magistrate judges are also authorized, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), to hear and determine pretrial matters pending before the Court which are not dispositive of the case. When appropriate, the magistrate judge shall enter into the record a written order setting forth the magistrate judge's disposition of the matter. Objections to the magistrate judge's order must be served and filed as set forth in LCrR 59(3). Upon consideration of the objections, the judge to whom the case is assigned shall modify or set aside any portion of the magistrate judge's order found to be clearly erroneous or contrary to law.

If the order to which a party objects is oral, the parties must also file, within fourteen (14) days after the objections are served and filed, a joint statement showing how the issues presented by the objection arose and were decided by the magistrate judge. Only those facts essential to a decision of the issues presented in the objection should be set forth.
